Jagiroad College Women's Wing entertains the pleasure of inviting you to the U.G.C. sponsored National Seminar on Gender Equality through Women Empowerment to be held on 23rd and 24th June 2015. The internalization of the dominant patriarchal ideology leading to the subjection of women in all domains—social, cultural, political, legal, religious and so on—provides the platform for constituting the concept of gender and hence in the present context Gender Studies has come to acquire tremendous significance, drawing increasingly provocative interest from academic readers as well as social activists. Our desired goal is to make an assessment of women's position by examining their participation and performance in various fields. Your presence in the programme will make it successful and as such we are looking for your active participation in the same. The proceedings of the seminar will be published in book form with ISBN number.
